

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended
HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak
more in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further,
that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases steamed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throat, catarrhs, an approaching consumption. To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back
Loss of appetite Indigestion
Impurity of blood Melancholy
Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach
Nervous weakness Pains in the limbs
and debility Relaxations, &c.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute
and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic out palsy, lambo, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain
in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatsoever, and not accompanied with that promoting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free
from corrosive and repellent minerals,
the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes
of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, fetters, ring-
worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natura weakness, or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets
may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America,
from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion,
and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.
"Life is so short and time so valuable,
that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence."
Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

THE Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations, which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical
States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—
and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.
The second, of all parts dependent on Europe. And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.
It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages
each—to be printed in Philadelphia,
on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers,
who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal history published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780,
when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea
of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH,

which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences, with a third impression of the History of the U-States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 18 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no
pecuniary consideration for their trouble
—but are willing to make the necessary
advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

TO FARMERS AND GARDENERS.

Those who have recently frequented the markets at New-York, have been, I understand, greatly surprised at the sight of the Russia Turnips, which have been there sold for me; and I am informed that the person who has hitherto taken them to market, has misrepresented himself as having raised them, or at least, as having had a hand in raising them, while he has not informed any one of the name of the proprietor of them. Deeming this a matter of great public interest, I shall hope to be excused in trespassing for a moment on your patience, while I relate the real facts.

Always having thought, that by the culture of root crops and green crops, the clear profit of any farm in America might be much more than doubled, I formed the design, last summer, to try how those crops would succeed here. I did not land at New-York till the 5th of May—I took a piece of land on the 20th, so poor that all my neighbors said nothing would grow on it. The far greater part of it was covered with weeds and brambles; there was not twenty loads of manure on the place; I have never bought any, and upon about seven acres of this land I have raised about three hundred bushels of Russia Turnips. I made satisfactory experiments as to Mangel wurzle, Carrots, Parsnips and Cabbages, none of which were sown till the month of June, and yet the crops were surprisingly great. It is my intention to publish an account of all those experiments very soon; but I shall first publish an account of the Russia Turnip culture.

The root will quite fat sheep and oxen, will half keep a horse, and half fat a pig of a good sort—and if boiled or steamed, quite fat such a pig. Its qualities for the table are well known, and the bulk of the crop may be made prodigious. My turnips were of various bulk on different parts of the land. Upon one acre there were 640 bushels, and if I live to next November, I have no doubt of being able to show 800 bushels upon an acre. Many of my turnips weighed more than ten pounds each. Many that go to market weigh from 6 to 8 pounds, and, as in the case of all fruits, the largest are the sweetest and richest. Having seen how well adapted the climate was to this culture, I wrote home for some seed to be sent me from a very worthy friend and neighbor in Hampshire, which I expect to arrive very soon. When it does arrive, I shall cause the part I do not want of it to be offered for sale at a moderate price, having a great desire to see this root generally cultivated. I have no doubt that seed raised in this country would be as good as seed raised in England; but as I have yet no knowledge of this matter, I speak only of the produce of English seed, and of seed, too, raised with great care by my neighbor before mentioned. The raising of the seed is rather a nice matter; but I shall this summer raise some myself, and I shall give full instructions, in print, how to raise it in the best manner. My stay in the United States may not be long; but I am not without some hopes, that my visit will be remembered by the introduction of the root culture, and by the driving out of long-nosed, long-necked, long-legged sharp-backed and pot-bellied hogs.

WM. COBBETT.

N. B. I have used the words "Russia Turnip," because they are used in this neighborhood. We, in England, call it the Swedish Turnip. It is the real Ruta Baga. Its bulk is of a deep yellow, and its leaf is of a pea-green. It is, I find, sometimes called the Cabbage Turnip.

LOBBYING.

ALEXANDRIA.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17, 1818.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Thursday, April 16, 1818.

The bill to provide for erecting additional public offices for the executive departments, was yesterday ordered to a third reading in the senate, by 25 votes to 10. An amendment to bring the site of them farther eastward, failed.

In the representatives, a bill to transfer the duties of commissioner of claims to the third auditor of the treasury, was read twice.

The neutrality bill, as it is called, has been laid on the table, for the purpose of affording time to the house to give due consideration to the amendments of the senate. This took place with the consent of the friends of the bill.

The bill from the senate supplementary to the act for preventing the importation of negroes, was taken up and ordered for a third reading. Mr. Simkins made a motion to amend it providing that all the slaves seized for being illegally imported should be sold—one half of the proceeds to go to the United States, the other to those who should seize them. Considering that the bill itself was intended to put an end to that nefarious trade, the proposition was a singular one—going, in fact, to legalize a mischief which the bill itself professes to render unlawful. Mr. Hugh Nelson protested against it with that ebullient bosom warmth which so constantly marks his effusions when the interests of humanity are called in question. He was sorry, he said, to hear such a proposition from any southern member, and affirmed that, if agreed to, it would restore the trade to a state but little better than it was before the prohibitory law was enacted. Mr. Pindall advocated the amendment, but it was negatived for all that.

The bill for fixing the day for the next meeting of congress was returned by the senate with an amendment, making the day of meeting the third instead of the first Monday in November, which amendment the house agreed to.

A bill continuing until the 30th of June, 1825, the existing duties on cotton and woollen manufactures was ordered to a third reading, after a warm but ineffectual opposition on the part of some of the friends of agriculture, who deprecated the laying excessive taxes on the farmers for the mere benefit of manufacturers. Not but there were among the advocates of the bill some as hearty and interested friends to agriculture as any among those who opposed it.

The stationary premium of five thousand dollars, awarded to the first drawn number yesterday afternoon, in the Medical College Lottery, fell to 8603. This capital prize, like those in both the former classes, was sold at Corner's Office, Market-street, and may be considered as indicative of the future intentions of Fortune, in thus continuing the distribution of her favors from that very fortunate establishment.

COMMERCIAL REGULATION.

A very important bill has passed the Senate of the United States, with only one dissenting voice, to shut the ports of the United States, after September next, against all British vessels arriving from ports into which American vessels are not permitted to enter. This measure, as a municipal regulation, and justified by the laws of fair retaliation, cannot involve any political difference with England; and will cease to operate whenever the British colonies are permanently opened to the admission of American vessels. The motives of this measure may be seen in the report made to the president of the United States by the secretary of state on the 17th of last month. It is there laid down, that the admission of American vessels into the West India islands, &c. is not more than a fair equivalent for the admission of British vessels in all the American ports, particularly the new states. (which in a commercial sense may be called colonies) producing, as they do, all the articles of European colonies in the same hemisphere. Whether this, or the bill before the house laying duties amounting to a prohibition, will best effect the contemplated object, is a question we are not able to solve.

From the N. Y. Com. Adver. April 12. LATE FROM ENGLAND.

The brig Tom Hazard, captain Holbridge, is below, in 59 days from Liverpool. She brings London dates to the 2d, and Liverpool to the 4th of March. Her letter bags are not yet delivered at the post-office. We have received one package of our London papers, but none of our Lloyd's or Shipping Lists. We have also been favored with a commercial letter, dated at Liverpool on the 3d of March, from which extracts will be found below.

The prominent articles of intelligence by this arrival relate to the death of the king of Sweden, and an attempt made at Paris on the life of the duke of Wellington.

In relation to the latter event, a letter from Paris, which will be found below, contains all the particulars we have yet received. Respecting the former, our latest London Courier thus remarks:—"The death of the king of Sweden is an event of more interest to party feeling than to political power. Bernadotte will succeed to the throne, and Sweden will remain precisely as she was. He indeed may fear to meet an ungracious countenance on all sides. He may apprehend that the enemies of law, now nicknamed legitimacy, may scowl upon his greatness, as a child of the revolution; but if he has been a child, at least he has not been a champion of jacobinism. A soldier of fortune, the French revolution threw him upon his present eminence, which his superior mind and gracious services to both Danes and Swedes secured to him. He dethroned no prince by fraud, he trampled down no dynasty by revolutionary ruffian bores, he pillaged no country, he insulted no people. The reigning king of Sweden, conscious of unmerited unpopularity, in disgust abdicated the throne, and was legitimately succeeded by his uncle, a favorite of the people. To prop this change against the power of Bonaparte, under which almost all the thrones of Europe were then tottering, Bernadotte was called in by the popular party, and appointed next in succession as Crown Prince. He was not indebted to Bonaparte or to France for his promotion, but to the humanity and wisdom with which he exercised in the north his authority as a French viceroy. Revolutionary principles were as well satisfied by this proceeding as the more strict principles of legitimacy. He was a child of the French revolution, and he was the choice of the people of Sweden, not suddenly elevated to the throne, but to ascend it in due succession, after future services should have confirmed the gratitude which the past had created. Thus his accession must be as popular as it is just and irreproachable."

The amount of Bank of England notes in circulation, on the 12th of January last, was 30,619,440, being something above two millions more than on the corresponding day in January, 1817. The increase is entirely in notes above 5l; in the smaller notes there has been a decrease of about 700,000l.

The Criterion, Avery, from New York, arrived at Gravesend 18th Feb.; the Solon, from do. at do. 17th; the Amity, Carolina Ann and Ganges, all from N. York, at Liverpool.

Extract of a letter to a commercial house in this city, received by the Tom Hazard.

Liverpool, Feb. 21. We wrote you on the 7th relative to our cotton market; since when, from the very animated demand, it has continued to improve in price, and extensive sales have been made at an advance of 1-4d per lb. in uplands. For some days past we have not had so active an inquiry, although much business would have been done at a trifling reduction—21 1-2d would be taken readily for good uplands, and 21 1-4d would as readily be given; but our sales of this description have this week been limited, owing to the refusal either to recede on the one hand, or to advance on the other. The wants of the consumers are pressing, but in consequence of this feeling, they purchase only to supply their immediate need. The demand for sea island has slackened, but our quotations are fully maintained.

Our anticipations that foreign wheat and flour would be admitted for consumption on the 15th instant have been to day realized by official advices from London, that the aggregate average of the prices of wheat for the six weeks ending the 14th instant, was 86s—six shillings above the maximum price.

Our present stock of American flour is estimated at 20,000 barrels of sweet, and 23,500 do. of sour. Our market is exceedingly dull—560 barrels of New-York sweet flour (in bond) were offered by auction on Tuesday last, and sold at 52s 9d a 55s; but the holders are generally asking 58s. Some flour goes off slowly at our quotations.

Within this week past Carolina rice has advanced 3 a 4 per cent. There appears some disposition to speculate, as it is understood that the duty of 20 1-4 per cent. will be resumed on the 15th of April on American rice. East India rice will be admitted duty free till the 1st of January, 1819. The import this season has been 2917 casks, of which only 277 tierces and 77 half do. remain unsold, and are held at 42s per cwt.

One parcel of 300 barrels of turpentine comprises the whole of our stock of that article in first hands—19s are asked for it.

Tar meets with ready sale at our quotations. There are but few inquiries for quercitron bark. There has been some inquiry for American flaxseed for sowing, and a small parcel has been disposed of at 120s per bbl. for the Irish market. There is but little demand for pot ashes, but holders are nevertheless firm, expecting a revival. Pearls are more inquired for, but at lower rates. Very little doing in tobacco, either for home use or exportation. The lower qualities being scarce are more sought after.

RICARDSON & BOLTON.

QUOTATIONS
Cotton, sea island, very fine, 3 a 4s; good and fine 2s 7d a 3s; middlings 2s 6 1-2d; stained 2s a 2s 5d; upland, new, 21d a 21 3-4d; old 18 1-2 a 21d; New-Orleans 19 a 23 1-2d; wheat, American, 15s 6d a 14s 6d per bushel—flour, sweet and superfine, 55 a 58s; sour 46 a 48s; ice Carolina, 40 a 42s per cwt; turpentine 18 a 19s; tar 19 a 20s per bbl; quercitron bark, N. York, 18 a 20s per cwt; Philadelphia 23 a 25s; flaxseed for sowing 120s per bbl; ashes, Boston, 1st pot, 61s per cwt; N. York 59 a 60s; pearls 60 a 62s; tobacco, Va. 5 1-2d a 10 1-2d; Georgia and Carolina 5d a 7d.

March 3.

There is no material alteration in our market. Cotton continues steady at the prices quoted above, but not doing much.

London, February 21.

The following letter was received this morning from Vienna:—"Vienna, Feb. 8.—The conjectures formed by the public some time since, have lately acquired such a degree of moral certainty, that I can no longer refrain from communicating to you what is entitled to full confidence. No doubt is entertained that our august sovereign, yielding to the reiterated offers and representations of the Germanic Body, has consented to resume the imperial crown of Germany. One of our most enlightened publicists has prepared the Acta Capitularia, which, since the 2d of this month, has been accepted and ratified in all its points. Though the details circulated at court are not stamped with sufficient authenticity to justify my transcribing them, yet I will add, that it is universally believed the ancient council of the empire is to be established (Reichshofrath) at Vienna; that besides the imperial dignity, the hereditary prince is to be created king of Germany, and that the functions of field marshal of the German empire have been given with common accord to the archduke Charles, who quits his post of captain-general of Bohemia. These innovations, or rather this return to our ancient usages, inspire the best grounded hopes for the future."

We have received since our last the French papers of Tuesday and Wednesday. They are peculiarly barren of intelligence. Not a syllable is said of any discoveries having been made, with respect to the attempt upon the Duke of Wellington, and there is probably no truth, therefore, in the account contained in the Brussels papers, of the police having already arrested some suspected persons.

Extract of a letter from Paris, Feb. 16.

"The French papers have given a pretty correct account of the late attempt made on the Duke of Wellington's life. As to the discovery of its author, that continues involved in mystery, notwithstanding the active researches of the police. It appears, however, that his grace has been able to furnish some clue for their researches, which is still acting upon, and which, for want of sufficient time, has not yet led to any result. The duke is said to have distinctly seen the individual who fired upon him, and to have observed that he wore mustachoes; in consequence of this indication, many half-pay officers have received orders to quit Paris, and others are put under strict surveillance. It seems that the individual in question was pursued immediately after his attempt, though not by the duke's servants, whose first attention was directed to his grace, but some persons who happened to be standing in front of the public house near the hotel. These followed him up to the Rue de la Madeleine, a dark and unfrequented street, and observed him to enter a house (No. 11.) the doors immediately closed on him. They knocked in vain at these doors. They state, that the voices of several women and that of one man were distinctly to be heard. The house itself is said to be of ill fame. This information was unfortunately not given to the duke's family, or to the police, until late in the morning, in consequence of which neglect, when a search was made at the house in question, nothing was to be found—its usual inhabitants had disappeared.

To the Editors of the Savannah Republican.

"I yesterday witnessed the interment of another of those patriots, that our country 'in congress assembled' so frequently speak of, but so little assist."

"I have seen the body of Gen. HARRY LEX, receive all the honors that could be given by feeling hearts, from those who probably will be forgotten by their country, when no longer serviceable, until it is too late to benefit them; either by pecuniary rewards or a just acknowledgment of their merits. He was buried from Douglass house, the property of one of our revolutionary heroes, Gen. N. GARRARD. Whether to meet in fancy, his old companion in arms, in the house he had inhabited; or to call back scenes of better times, led him to the spot, I did not inquire—but learned, however, that he came an invalid; that Mr. Shaw and family, strove all in their power to keep the lamp of life burning, and although the oil was expended they still blew the gentle breath of affection, and attempted to preserve the wick alive. Commodore John D. HENLEY superintended the last sad duties. Captains John H. ELIOT, William Bolton Finch, John R. MADISON, lieuts. FITZBUGH, and RICHIE, of the navy, and Mr. LYMAN, of the army, were pallbearers. As the procession moved, the words of the two first, crossed the old man's breast—they were in their scabbards, for his heart beat no more, and I thought they said—"rest in peace." The other officers of the navy, and capt. Paine of the army, followed. The marines of the U. States ship John Adams, and brig Saratoga, formed the guard; and a band from our army at Ferdinandia, assisted. A Mr. Taylor performed the last ceremonial duties, in which all were reminded that we must die. Mr. Shaw, Mr. Sands, and others, were the mourners. The sight of a long train of sailors, cleanly dressed, their respectful deportment, rough but independent looks, interested my feelings; and leaning against a fine live oak, was immediately absorbed in contemplation. I pointed to the procession; they were marching over the field, where once a fine orange orchard flourished. An intruder of our country had destroyed it. Admiral Cockburn had been there, "the last of his name;" and a far greater scourge to mankind, than the locusts of Africa. Involuntary I turned to embrace the venerable but sturdy, monarch that supported me; for it promised such things should never be again. A volley of musketry over the grave of General LEX aroused me, and with folded arms I retraced my steps, while the howling of the minute guns, from the John Adams, echoed through the woods."

Notice.

IN the years 1784—5, and part of 1786, a certain Samuel Galt kept a store in Port Tobacco—in '86 he gave his books and goods to trustees in Baltimore for the benefit of his creditors. The said trustees sold the goods and divided the proceeds among his creditors there, they paying, as I have been told, ten shillings in the pound. Some years after the trustees sent his books to me, with authority to collect what was due thereon, and pay it over to his creditors who resided in this county, and also to sell a small lot of land he held. I have long since collected all I could on the books, and sold the land in 1796, but never received the money for it until a few days ago; and I am now ready to pay over, but there is to his creditors who resided at that time in Charles county, and have fixed on Monday, the 17th of August next, to make the final distribution: it will not amount to ten shillings in the pound with interest. I therefore wish all claimants to send in their claims duly authenticated against that day.

I find on the books a balance due a Rev. Mr. Stewart, (his first name does not appear) who was then of this place, and have understood emigrated to the southward; also a certain Nicholas and Valentine Pears, who were then merchants in Port Tobacco. I know not where either of them are, but wish them or their representatives to send in their claims without delay.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:
H A V I N G long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS. With this view I have purchased the FARMON CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pike-land and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.
In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination; nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.
The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended; nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter. The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.
Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER, 2d mo. 21

Fan-Sash Making.
METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.
Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as in town.

James Kennedy & Son, RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:
Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every part of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.
This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or gripping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.
Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Tape or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm; so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.
Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.
Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.
A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.
Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.
The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.
Sold only wholesale and retail, by JAMES KENNEDY & SON, September 26 King-st. Alexandria.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended.
HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders, Violent cramps in the stomach and bowels, Lowness of spirits, Indigestion, Loss of appetite, Impurity of blood, Melancholy, Hysterical affection, Gout in the stomach, Inward weaknesses, Pains in the limbs and debility, Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lambo, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ring-worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness, or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
Sold only wholesale and retail, by JAMES KENNEDY & SON, September 26 King-st. Alexandria.
